The committee may postpone or adjourn the inquiry from to time. 7

8. The Committee may allow or refuse to allow the public or any portion thereof to be present during the whole or any part of the inquiry. Subject to the foregoing paragraphs, the procedure at the inquiry shall 9. be such as the Committee may determine. SCHEDULE 111 [See 40(2)] The Citizenship Rules, 2009 I. Where it appears to the Central Government that a citizen of India has voluntarily acquired the citizenship of any other counüy, it may require him to prove within such period as may be fixed by it in this behalf, that he has not voluntarily acquired the citizenship of that country; and the burden of proving that he has not so acquired such citizenship shall be on him. For the purpose of determining any question relating to the acquisition 2. by an Indian citizen of the citizenship of any other country, the Central Government may make such reference as it thinks fit in respect of that question or of any matter relating thereto, to its Embassy in that country or to the Govemment of that counüy and act on any report or information received in pursuance of such reference

3. The fact that a citizen of India has obtained on any date a passport from the Govemment of any other country shall be conclusive proof of his having voluntarily acquired the citizenship of that country before that date.

4. Where a person, who has become an Indian citizen by virtue of the Goa, Daman and Diu (Citizenship) Order, 1962, or the Dadra and Nagar Haveli (Citizenship) Order, 1962, issued under section 7 of the Citizenship Act, 1955 (57 of 1955) holds a passport issued by the Government of any other country, the fact that he has not surrendered the said passport on or before the 19th January, 1963 shall be conclusive proof of his having voluntarily acquired the citizenship of that country before that date. In determining whether a citizen of India has or has not voluntarily 5. acquired the citizenship of any other counüy, the Central Govemment may take the following circumstances into consideration, namely: - (a) whether the person has migrated to that country with the intention of making it his permanent home; (b) whether he has in fact taken up permanent residence in that country; and (c) any other circumstances relevant to the purpose

6. Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph 4, a citizen of India who leaves or has left India without a travel document issued by the Central Government and resides outside India for a period exceeding three years, shall be deemed to have voluntarily acquired the citizenship of the country of his residence
