"CHAPTER - III

VOTING BY ELECTRONIC VOTING MACHINES

85. Application of provisions of this Chapter and Design of Electronic Voting Machines.- (1)The provisions of this Chapter shall apply wherever electronic voting machine is used during the conduct of elections to the Zilla Panchayat, Taluk Panchayat and Grama Panchayat.

(2) Every electronic voting machine (hereinafter referred to as the voting machine) shall comprise of two units, one a control unit and another a balloting unit and shall be of such designs as may be approved by the State Election Commission.

86. Preparation of voting machine by the returning officer.- (1) The balloting unit of the voting machine shall contain such particulars in Kannada language or languages as the State Election Commission may specify.

(2) The names of the candidates shall be arranged on the balloting unit in the same order in which they appear in the list of contesting candidates.

(3) If two or more candidates bear the same name, they shall be distinguished by the addition of their father's name or residence or in some other manner, as the state election commission may specify.

(4) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this rule, the returning officer shall,-

(a) fix the label, containing the names and symbol of the contesting candidates in the balloting unit and secure such unit with his seal and the seals of such of the contesting candidates or their election agents present as are desirous of affixing the same.

(b) set the number of contesting candidates and close the candidate set section in the control unit and secure it with his seal and seals of such of the contesting candidates or their election agents present as are desirous of affixing the same.

87. Arrangements at the polling stations.- (1) In each polling station there shall be displayed prominently-

(a) a notice specifying the polling area, the electors of which are entitled to vote at the polling station and, when the polling area has more than one polling station, the particulars of the electors so entitled to vote: and

(b) a copy of the list of contesting candidates.

(2) At each polling station, there shall be set up one or more voting compartments in which the electors can record their votes free from observation.

(3) The returning officer shall provide at each polling station, one voting machine and copies of relevant parts of the electoral roll and such other election material as may be necessary for the poll.

(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (3), the returning officer may, with the previous approval of the State Election Commission, provide one common voting machine for two or more polling stations located in the same premises.

88. Admission to polling stations.-The presiding officer shall regulate the number of electors, to be admitted at any one time inside the polling station and shall exclude all persons other than

(a)polling officers;
(b)public servants on duty in connection with the election;
(c) persons authorised by the State Election Commission
(d)candidates, their election agents and subject to the provisions of Rule 25, one polling agent of each candidate; (e) a child in arms accompanying an elector;
(f) a person accompanying a blind or infirm elector, who cannot move without help, and,
(g) such other person as the returning officer or the presiding officer may employ under sub-rule (2) of rule 91 or sub-rule (1) of rule 92.

89. Preparation of voting machine for poll.- (1) The control unit and balloting unit of every voting machine used at polling station shall bear a label marked with,-
(a)the serial number, if any, and the name of the constituency;
(b)the serial number and name of the polling station or stations as the case may be;
(c) the serial number of the unit; and
(d)the date of poll.

(2) Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the presiding officer shall demonstrate to the polling agents and other persons present that no vote has been already recorded in the voting machine and it bears the paper seal referred to in sub-rule (4).

(3) A paper seal shall be used for securing the control unit of the voting machine, and the presiding officer shall affix his own signature on the paper seal and obtain thereon, the signatures of such of the polling agents as are desirous of affixing the same.

(4) The presiding officer shall thereafter fix the paper seal so signed in the space meant therefor in the control unit of the voting machine and shall secure and seal the same.

(5) The seal used for securing the control unit shall be so fixed that it is not possible to press the "result button" without breaking the seal after the unit has been sealed.

(6) The control unit shall be closed and secured and placed in full view of the presiding officer and the polling agents and the balloting unit shall be placed in the voting compartment, at the polling station.

90. Marked copy of the electoral roll.- Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the presiding officer shall also demonstrate to the polling agents and others present that the marked copy of the electoral roll to be used during the poll does not contain,-

(a)any entry other than that made in pursuance of rule 41; and

(b)any mark other than the mark made in pursuance of clause (b) of sub rule (2) of rule 41.

91. Facilities for women electors.- (1) Where a polling station is for both men and women electors, the presiding officer may direct that they shall be admitted to the polling station alternatively in separate batches.

(2) The returning officer or the presiding officer may appoint a woman to serve as an attendant at any polling station to assist women electors and also to assist the presiding officer generally in the poll in respect of woman electors, and in particular, to help frisking any woman elector if necessary.

92. Identification of electors.- (1) The presiding officer may employ at the polling station such persons as he thinks fit to help in the identification of the electors or otherwise to assist him during the poll.

(2) As each elector enters the polling station, the presiding officer or the polling officer authorised by him in this behalf shall check the elector's name and other particulars with the relevant entry in the electoral roll and then call out the serial number, name and other particulars of the elector.

(3) Where the polling station is situated in a constituency electors of which have been supplied with identity cards under the provisions of the Registration of Electors Rules, 1960 made under the Representation of People Act, 1950, (Central Act 43 of 1950) the elector shall produce his identity card before the presiding officer or the polling officer authorised by him in this behalf.

(4) In deciding the right of a person to cast his vote, the presiding officer or the polling officer, as the case may be, shall over-look merely clerical or printing errors in any entry in the electoral roll if he is satisfied that such person is identical with the elector to whom such entry relates.

93. Facilities for public servants on election duty.- (1) The provisions of rule 92 shall not apply to any person who produces at the polling station an election duty certificate in Form 20 and seeks permission to cast his vote at that polling station although it is different from the one where he is entitled to vote.

(2) On production of such certificate, the presiding officer shall,-

(a) obtain thereon, the signature of the person producing it;

(b) have the person's name and electoral roll number as mentioned in the certificate entered at the end of the marked copy of the electoral roll; and

(c) permit him to cast his vote in the same manner as an elector is entitled to vote at that polling station.

94. Challenging the identity.- (1) Any polling agent may challenge the identity of a person claiming to be a particular elector by first depositing a sum of Two rupees in cash with the presiding officer for each such challenge.

(2) On such deposit being made, the presiding officer shall,-
(a) warn the persons challenged of the penalty for personation;
(b) read the relevant entry in the electoral roll in full and ask him whether he is the person referred to in that entry; (c) enter his name and address in the list of challenged votes in

Form 25; and

(d) require him to affix his signature in the said list.

(3) The presiding officer shall thereafter hold a summary inquiry into the challenge and may for that purpose,- (a) require the challenger to adduce evidence in proof of the challenge and the person challenged to adduce evidence of proof of his identity.

(b) put to the person challenged any questions necessary for the purpose of establishing his identity and require him to answer them on oath; and

(c) administer an oath to the person challenged and any other person offering to give evidence.

(4) If, after the inquiry, the presiding officer considers that the challenge has not been established he shall allow the person challenged to vote; and if he considers that the challenge has been established, he shall debar the person challenged from voting.

(5) If the presiding officer is of the opinion that the challenge is frivolous or has not been made in good faith, he shall direct that the deposit made under sub-rule (1) be forfeited to Government and in any other case, return to the challenger at the conclusion of the inquiry.

95. Safeguards against personation.- (1) Every elector about whose identity the presiding officer or the polling officer, as the case may be, is satisfied, shall allow his left forefinger to be inspected by the presiding officer or the polling officer and an indelible ink mark to be put on it.

(2) If any elector-

(a) refuse to allow his left forefinger to be inspected or marked in accordance with sub-rule (1) or has already such a mark on his left forefinger or does any act with a view to removing the ink mark, or

(b) fails or refuses to produce his identity card as required by sub-rule (3) of rule 92 he shall not be allowed to vote.

(3) Where a poll is taken simultaneously in a Parliamentary Constituency or Assembly Constituency and a ward, an elector whose left finger has been marked with indelible ink or who has produced his identity card at one such election, shall not withstanding anything contained in sub-rules (1) and (2) be permitted to cast his vote for the other election.

(4) Any reference in this rule to the left forefinger of an elector shall, in the case where the elector has his left forefinger missing, be construed as a reference to any other finger of his left hand, and shall, in the case where all the fingers of his left hand are missing, be construed as a reference to the forefinger or any other finger of his right hand, and shall in the case where all his fingers of both the hands are missing be construed as a reference to such extremity of his left or right arm as he possesses.

96. Procedure for voting by voting machines.- (1) Before permitting an elector to vote, the polling officer shall,- (a)record the electoral roll number of the elector as entered in the marked copy of the electoral roll in a register of voters in form 38.

(b)obtain the signature or the thumb impression of an elector on the said register of voters; and

(c) mark the name of the elector in the marked copy of the electoral roll to indicate that he has been allowed to vote:

Provided that no elector shall be allowed to vote unless he has put his signature or thumb impression on the register of voters.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), it shall be necessary for any presiding officer or polling officer or any other officer to attest the thumb impression of the elector on the register of voters.

97. Maintenance of secrecy of voting by electors within the polling station and voting procedures.- (1) Every elector who has been permitted to vote under rule 96 shall maintain secrecy of voting within the polling station and for that purpose observe the voting procedure hereinafter laid down.

(2) Immediately on being permitted to vote the elector shall proceed to the presiding officer or the polling officer in charge of the control unit of the voting machine who shall, by pressing the appropriate button on the control unit, activate the balloting unit; for recording of elector's vote.

(3) The elector shall thereafter forthwith-

(a) proceed to voting compartment;

(b) record his or her vote by pressing the button on the balloting unit against the name and symbol of the candidate for whom he or she intends to vote; and

(c) come out of the voting compartment and leave the polling station.

(4) Every elector shall vote without undue delay.

(5) No elector shall be allowed to enter the voting compartment when another elector is inside it.

(6) If an elector who has been permitted to vote under rule 96 or rule 100 refuses after warning given by the presiding officer to observe the procedure laid down in sub-rule (3), the presiding officer or a polling officer under the direction of the presiding officer shall not allow such elector to vote.

(7) Where an elector is not allowed to vote under sub-rule (6), a remark to the effect that voting procedure has been violated shall be made against the elector's name in the register of voters in Form 38 by the presiding officer under his signature.

98. Recording of votes of blind or infirm electors.- (1) If the presiding officer is satisfied that owing to the blindness or other physical infirmities an elector is unable to recognise the symbol on the balloting unit of the voting machine or unable to record his or her vote by pressing the appropriate button thereon without assistance, the presiding officer shall permit the elector to take with him or her a companion of his not less than eighteen years of age to the voting compartment for recording the vote on his behalf and in accordance with his wishes:

Provided that no person shall be permitted to act as the companion of more than one elector at any polling station on the same day:

Provided further that before any person is permitted to act as the companion of an elector on any day under this rule that person shall be required to declare that he will keep secret the vote recorded by him on behalf of the elector and that he has not already acted as the companion of any other elector at any other polling station on that day.

Form 38 and has put his signature or thumb impression thereon as required under sub-rule (1) of rule 96, decides not to record his or her vote, a remark to this effect shall be made against the said entry in Form 38 by the presiding officer and the signature or thumb impression of the elector shall be obtained against such remark.

100. Tendered votes.- (1) If a person representing himself to be a particular elector seeks to vote after another person has already voted as such elector, he shall, on satisfactorily answering such questions relating to his identity as the presiding officer may ask, be instead of being allowed to vote through the balloting unit, supplied with a tendered ballot paper, which shall be of such design, and the particulars of which shall be in kannada or languages as the State Election Commission may specify.

Form 27-A(EVM)

(3) Every voter receiving the ballot paper shall forthwith,-

(a) proceed to the voting compartment;

(b) record there his or her vote on the ballot paper by placing a cross mark 'X' with the instrument or article supplied for the purpose on or near the symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote;

(c) fold the ballot paper so as to conceal his vote;

(d) show to the presiding officer, if required, the distinguishing mark on the balloting paper;

(e) give it to the presiding officer who shall place it in a cover specially kept for the purpose; and

(f) leave the polling station.

(4) If owing to blindness or physical infirmities, such elector is unable to record his vote without assistance, the presiding officer shall permit him to take with him a companion, subject to the same condition and for following the same procedure as laid down in rule 98 for recording the vote in accordance with his wishes.

101. Presiding Officer's entry in the voting compartment during poll.- (1) The presiding officer may whenever he considers it necessary to do so, enter the voting compartment during poll and take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that the balloting unit is not tampered or interfered with in any way.

(2) If the presiding officer has reason to suspect that an elector who has entered the voting compartment is tampening or otherwise interfering with the balloting unit or has remained inside the voting compartment for unduly long period, he shall enter the voting compartment and take such steps as may be necessary to ensure the smooth and orderly progress of the poll.

(3) Whenever the presiding officer enters the voting compartment under this rule, he shall permit the polling agents present to accompany him if they so desire.

102. Closing of the poll.- (1) The presiding officer shall close a polling station at the hour fixed in that behalf under rule12 read with rule 57 and shall not thereafter admit any elector into the polling station.

Provided that all the electors present at the polling station before it is closed shall be allowed to cast their votes.

(2) If any question arises whether an elector was present at the polling station before it was closed it shall be decided by the presiding officer and his decision shall be final.

Form 28-B(EVM) after obtaining receipt from the said polling agent there and shall attest it as a true copy.

104. Sealing of voting machine after poll.- (1) As soon as practicable after the closing of the poll, the presiding officer shall close the control unit to ensure that no further votes can be recorded and shall detach the balloting unit from the control unit;

(2) The control unit and the balloting unit shall thereafter be sealed, and secured separately in such manner as the State Election Commission may direct and the seal used for securing them shall be so affixed that it is not possible to open the units without breaking the seals.

(3) The Polling agents present at the polling station, who desire to affix their seals shall also be permitted to do so.

105. Sealing of other packets.- (1) The presiding officer shall then make into separate packet,- (a)the marked copy of the electoral roll;
(b)the register of voters in

Form 38;

(c) the cover containing the tendered ballot papers and the list in Form 27-A(EVM);

(d)the list of challenged votes; and

(e) any other papers directed by the State Election Commission to be kept in a sealed packet.

(2) Each packet shall be sealed with the seal of the presiding officer and with the seal either of the candidate or his election agent or his polling agent who may be present at the polling station and may desire to affix his seal thereon.

106. Transmission of voting machines, etc., to the returning officer.- (1) The presiding officer shall then deliver or cause to be delivered to the returning officer at such place, as the returning officer may direct.-

(a)the voting machine;

(b)the account of votes recorded in

Form 28B(EVM).

(c) the sealed packets referred to in Rule 105.

(d)all other papers used at the poll.

(2) The returning officer shall make adequate arrangements for the safe transport of the voting machine, packets and other papers for the safe custody until the commencement of the counting of votes.

107. Procedure on adjournment of poll.- (1) If the poll at any polling station is adjourned under rule 30, provisions of rules 103 to 106 shall, as far as practicable, apply as if the poll was closed at the hour fixed in that behalf under rule 57.

(2) When an adjourned poll is recommended under rule 31, the electors who have already voted at the poll so adjourned shall not be allowed to vote again.

(3) The returning officer shall provide the presiding officer of the polling station at which such adjourned poll is held, with the sealed packet containing the marked copy of the electoral roll, register of voters in Form 38 and a new voting machine.

(4) The presiding officer shall open the sealed packet in the presence of the polling agents present and use the marked copy of the electoral roll for marking the names of the electors who are allowed to vote at the adjourned poll.

(5) The provisions of rule 2 and rule 85 to 106 shall apply in relation to the conduct of an adjourned poll before it was so adjourned.

108. Closing of voting machine in case of booth capturing.- Where the presiding officer is of the opinion that booth capturing is taking place at a polling station or at a place fixed for the poll, he shall immediately close the controlling unit of the voting machine to ensure that no further votes can be recorded and shall detach the balloting unit from the control unit.

109. Counting of votes where electronic voting machines have been used.- In relation to the counting of votes at a polling station, where voting machine has been used the provisions of rule 2, 63 to 66 shall mutatis mutandis apply.

110. Scrutiny and inspection of voting machines.- (1) The returning officer may have the control units of the voting machines used at more than one polling station taken up for scrutiny and inspection and votes recorded in such units counted simultaneously.

(2) Before the votes recorded in any control unit of voting machine are counted under sub-rule (1), the candidate or his election agent or his counting agent present at the counting table shall be allowed to inspect the paper seal and such other vital seals as might have been affixed on the unit and to satisfy themselves that the seals are intact.

(3) The returning officer shall satisfy himself that none of the voting machines has in fact been tampered with.

(4) If the returning officer is satisfied that any voting machine has in fact been tampered with, he shall not count the votes recorded in that machine and shall follow the procedure laid down in rule 32 or rule 33 as may be applicable in respect of the polling station or stations where that machine was used.

111. Counting of votes.- (1) After the returning officer is satisfied that a voting machine has in fact not been tempered with, he shall have the votes recorded therein counted by pressing the appropriate button marked “Result” provided in the control unit whereby the total votes polled and votes polled by each candidate shall be displayed in respect of each such candidate on the display panel provided for the purpose in the unit.

(2) As the votes polled by each candidate are displayed on the control unit, the returning officer shall have,-

Form 28-B(EVM).

(b)Part-II of Form 28-B(EVM) completed in other respects and signed by the counting supervisor and also by the candidates or their election agents or their counting agents present; and

(c)Corresponding entries made in a result sheet in Form 31-A (EVM) and the particulars so entered in the result sheet announced.

112. Sealing of voting machines.- (1) After the result of voting recorded in a control unit has been ascertained candidate-wise and entered in Part II of Form 28-B(EVM) and Form 31-A(EVM) under rule 67(11), 69(7) and 71(1)(5)(6) the returning officer shall reseal the unit with his seal and the seals of such of the candidates or their election agents present who may desire to affix the seals thereon so however that the result of voting recorded in the unit is not obliterated and the unit retains the memory of such result.

(2) The control unit so sealed shall be kept in specially prepared boxes on which the returning officer shall record the following particulars, namely:-

(a) the name of the constituency
(b) the particulars of the polling station or stations where the control unit has been used;
(c) serial number of the control unit;
(d) date of poll; and
(e) date of counting;

(3) the provisions of rules 70 to 72 shall, so far as may be, apply in relating to voting by voting machines and any reference in those rules to.-

(a) ballot paper shall be construed as including a reference to such voting machine;

(b) any rule shall be construed as a reference to the corresponding rule in Chapter-II or, as the case may be, to rule 110 or 111.

113. Custody of voting machines and papers relating to election.- (1) All voting machines used at an election shall be kept in such custody as the commissioner, State Election Commission, Karnataka may direct.

(1A) All voting machines used at an election shall be kept in the custody of the concerned District Election Officer.

(2) The District Election Officer shall keep in safe custody,-

(a) the packets of unused postal ballot papers with counterfoils attached thereto;

(b) the packets of used postal ballot papers whether valid, tendered or rejected;

(c) the packets of counter foils of used postal ballot papers;

(d) the packets of the marked copy of the electoral roll or, as the case may be;

Form 38, including voters' slip;

(f) the packets of the declarations by electors and the attestation of their signatures.

114. Applicability of Central Rules, statutory orders, etc.,- Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, wherever no specific provisions are made in these rules, the provisions of the Conduct of Elections Rules, 1961 made under the Representation of People Act, 1951 as amended from time to time and instructions, statutory orders and clarifications issued by the Election Commissions of India shall mutatis mutandis apply for the cases under these rules."
