(2) The presiding officer shall assign serial number to each candidate with reference to their names written alphabetically in Hindi in Devnagri Script and than announce to the Panchas or Member as the case may be serial number assigned to each candidate

16. Manner of recording votes, counting of votes and declaration of result.-(l) The Presiding Officer shall provide ballot box for the election of these seats. Such ballot box shall be of such design that the ballot paper card be inserted there in but cannot be withdrawn therefrom without the box being unlocked and the seal being broken. (2) The Presiding Officer shall immediately before the voting starts show the empty box to such members as may be present in the meeting so that they may be satisfied that it is empty and shall then secure and seal the box in such manner that the slit in the box for insertion of ballot paper therein remains open and shall also allow the candidates to affix their own seals -in the space in the box meant therefor if they so desire. (3) The Presiding Officer shall cause the ballot paper to be prepared in the Form Ill. (4) Every Panchas or Member, as case may be, wishing to vote shall be prQvided with a ballot paper. The Presiding Officer shall put his signature on the ballot paper before supply, so as to indicate its authenticity. The voter shall then proceed to the place set apart for voting 2 [and put the mark by a seal of rounded arrow given by the Presiding Officer] on the ballot paper against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold the ballot paper so as to maintain secrecy and insert the same in the ballot box splaced in the view of the presiding officer. (5)(i) If the Presiding Officer is satisfied that owing to, illiteracy, blindness or other physical infirmity, a voter is unable to record his vote. the presiding officer shall permit him to take a 3 [companion who is the nearest family member of the Voter], who is not less than eighteen years in age to record the vote of the member on his behalf and in accordance with his wishes: Provided that before any person is permitted to act as companion of any member under this rule the person shall be required to declare in form IV-A that he will keep secret the vote by him on behalf of voter and that he has not already acted as companion of any member: I The word "District Collector" subs. by No. 3 [22-9-20071. 2 The words "and put a cross (X)" subse by No. 3 [22-9-20071. 3 The word "companion" subs. by No. e [22-9-20071. (6) (i) Immediately after the voting is over, the Presiding Officer shall open the ballot box, take out the ballot papers therefrom, count them and record the number thereof in a statement. (ii) A ballct paper shall be invalid— (a) if iz bears the signature of member or contains any word or any visible representation by which he can be identified; or (b) if marks are placed thereon against more than one candidates; or (c) if the mark is so placed thereon as to make it doubtful for which candidate the vote was intended to be given; or (d) if no mark is placed thereon; or (e) if it does not bear the signature of Presiding Officer. (7)(i) The Presiding Officer shall declare the candidate who secure the largest number of votes to be duly elected in Form V. (ii) In case of equality, the election shall be decided by lot to be draw by the presiding officer and the candidate on whom lot falls shall be declared to have been duly elected. COMMENTARY Validity of ballot paper- putting of right symbol mark instead of cross mark - provision is directory not mandatory.-Sub-rule 6(ii) con- templates five category of cases in which the ballot paper is held to be invalid. Putting of any other mark than the one prescribed under sub-rule (4) is not contemplated in the category for declaring a ballot paper as invalid. If only marks are placed in a ballot paper in a manner to make it doubtful as to for which candidate the vote was intended to be given then the same becomes invalid. The grounds contemplated for declaring a as invalid does not indicate that a vote cast by putting any mark other than the cross mark is invalid, that being so, the requirement of putting cross mark is only directory in nature and not mandatory. 21. Adjournment of election in emergency.-(l) If at a meeting, the proceedings of election are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or open violence or any sufficient cause, the Presiding Officer shall announce an adjournment of election to a date later and where the election is so adjourned by Presiding Officer, he shall forthwith inform the 2[District Collector and Competent Authority]. (2) Where an Election is adjourned under sub-rule (1), the District Collector shall immediately report the circumstance to the 3 [Director, Panchayat and Social Justice and Madhya Pradesh State Election Com- mission.] (3) In every such case as aforesaid, the 4 [Competent Authority] shall fix a new date for fresh election and the provisions of chapter IV mutatis apply to the fresh election taken under this rule. COMMENTARY Situation in which adjournment permissible.-Adjournment of process of electio}i is permissible, if proceedings of election are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or open violence at a meeting. "At a meeting" would simply suggest that any wrong should take place at meeting and not outside meeting. Adjournment not permissible. -After elections were over, results were declared and announced in public, any interruption or obstruction by third party cannot affect result of election. Arter votes were counted and results were declared some people entered in the hall and asserting that re-vot ing should be done. Such demand of re-voting cannot be taken as a situat ion of emergency.
